

Study at Aarhus University

AARHUS UNIVERSITET

Note!: This presentation is not an official presentation from Aarhus University, but an attempt to provide useful information and links if you consider studying at Aarhus University

Aarhus, Denmark

Navitas

Programmes offered in English

- Mechanical Design

<http://ingenioer.au.dk/en/educationsinengineeringataarhusuniversity/international-programme/mechanical-design/>

- Urban Water

<http://ingenioer.au.dk/en/educationsinengineeringataarhusuniversity/international-programme/urban-water/>

- Applied App Development

<http://ingenioer.au.dk/en/educationsinengineeringataarhusuniversity/international-programme/applied-app-development/>

General information, requirements etc.

- <http://ingenioer.au.dk/en/educationsinengineeringataarhusuniversity/international-programme/for-future-students-international-programmes/>
- <http://ingenioer.au.dk/en/educationsinengineeringataarhusuniversity/international-programme/>

Teaching in Denmark

- A lot of group work
- A lot of cooperation with local and national companies/factories
- You have very free hands in the projects.

Living expenses in Denmark (according to AU)

- Accommodation (in dormitory):

16.500 – 25.000 rubbles/month

- Food, books, transport, spare time activities and etc.:

30.000 – 40.000 rubbles/month

- Typical study job salary in Denmark before/after taxes:

900/500 rubbles/hour

Student life

- “Haddokks Friday Bar” every Friday
- AT Torpedo – Soccer team
- Meet with your study group to study, have fun, go to nightclubs or do sports
- “Student House Aarhus” has a lot of arrangements for international students
- Enjoy the surrounding nature, bike all around town (everyone bikes in DK)
- Explore Denmark!

Language

- We speak Danish
- “Easy” to learn if you now English – has grammar in common and a lot of words. Pronunciation is hard though.