

Technische Universität Berlin
Straße des 17. Juni 135
10623 Berlin
Tel.: +49-30-314-0
www.tu-berlin.de

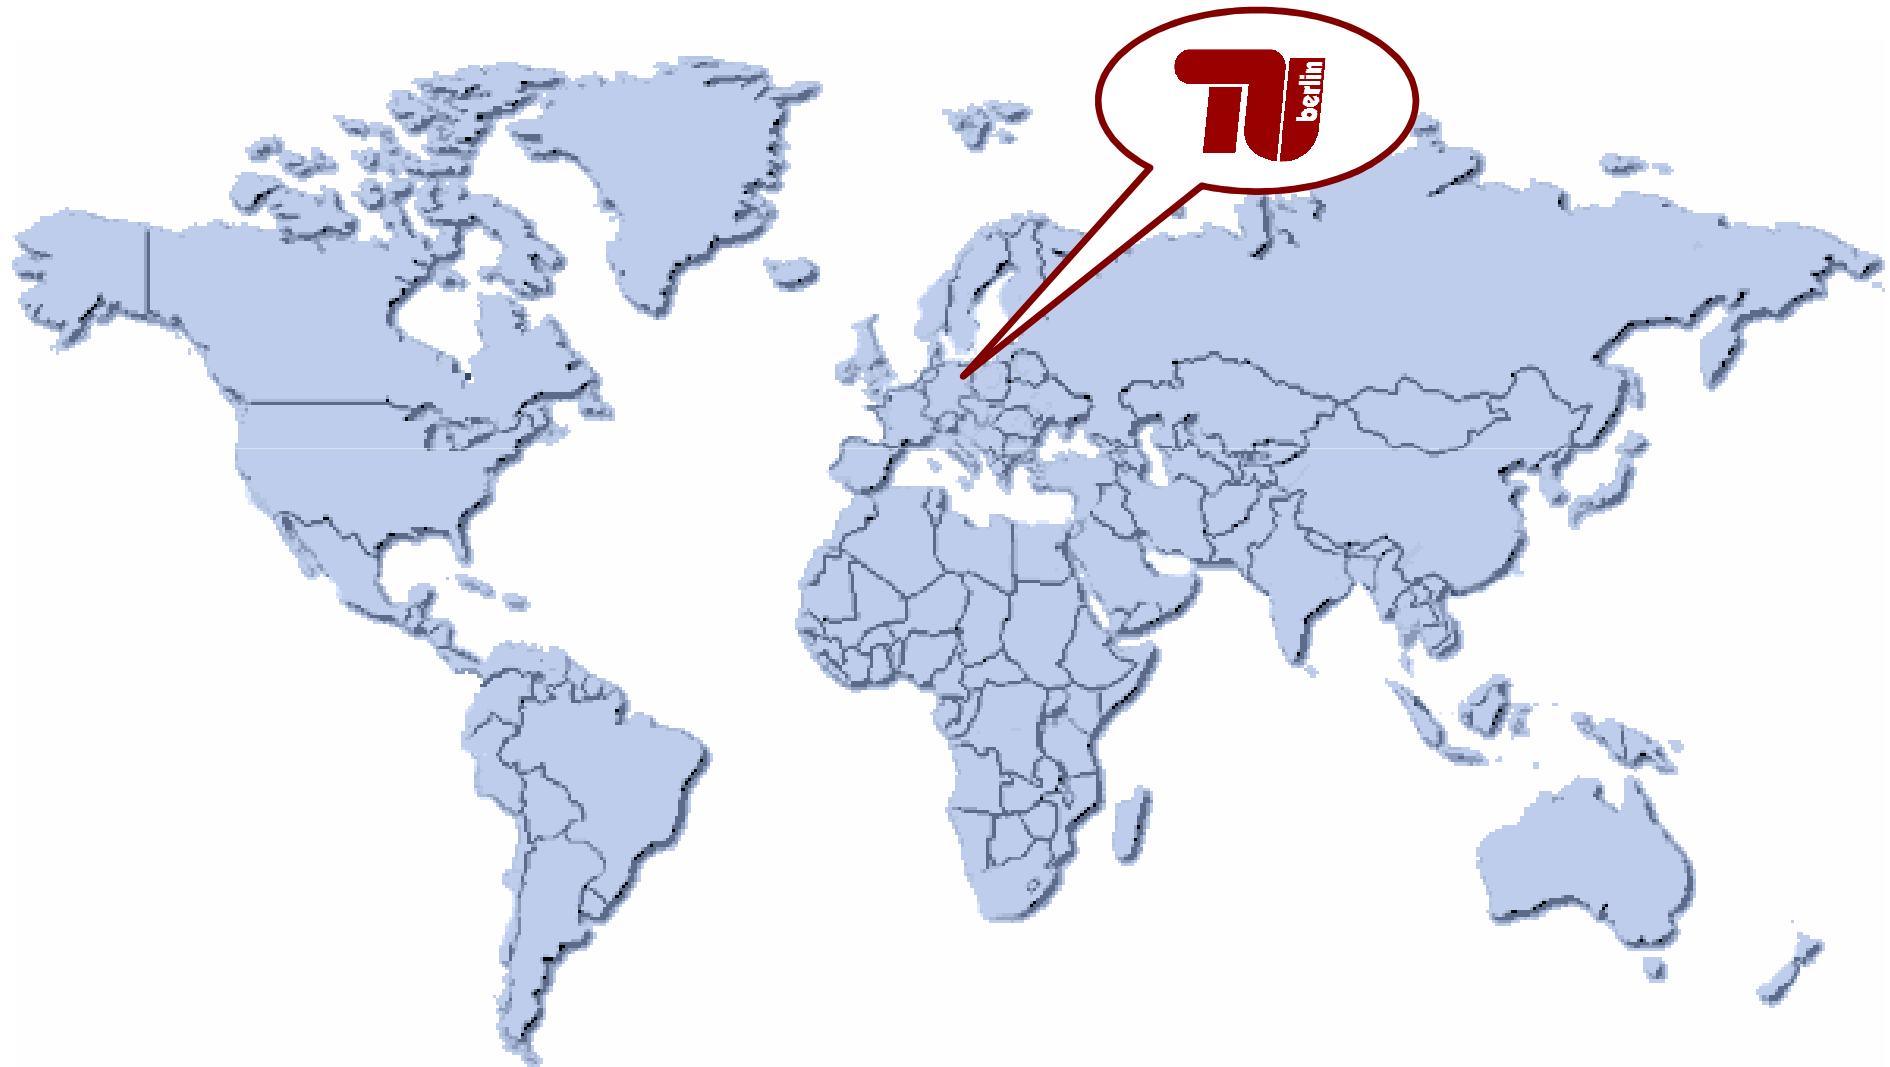

Basics

Geographical Position of Berlin

The President
Foreign Relations

Main Campus

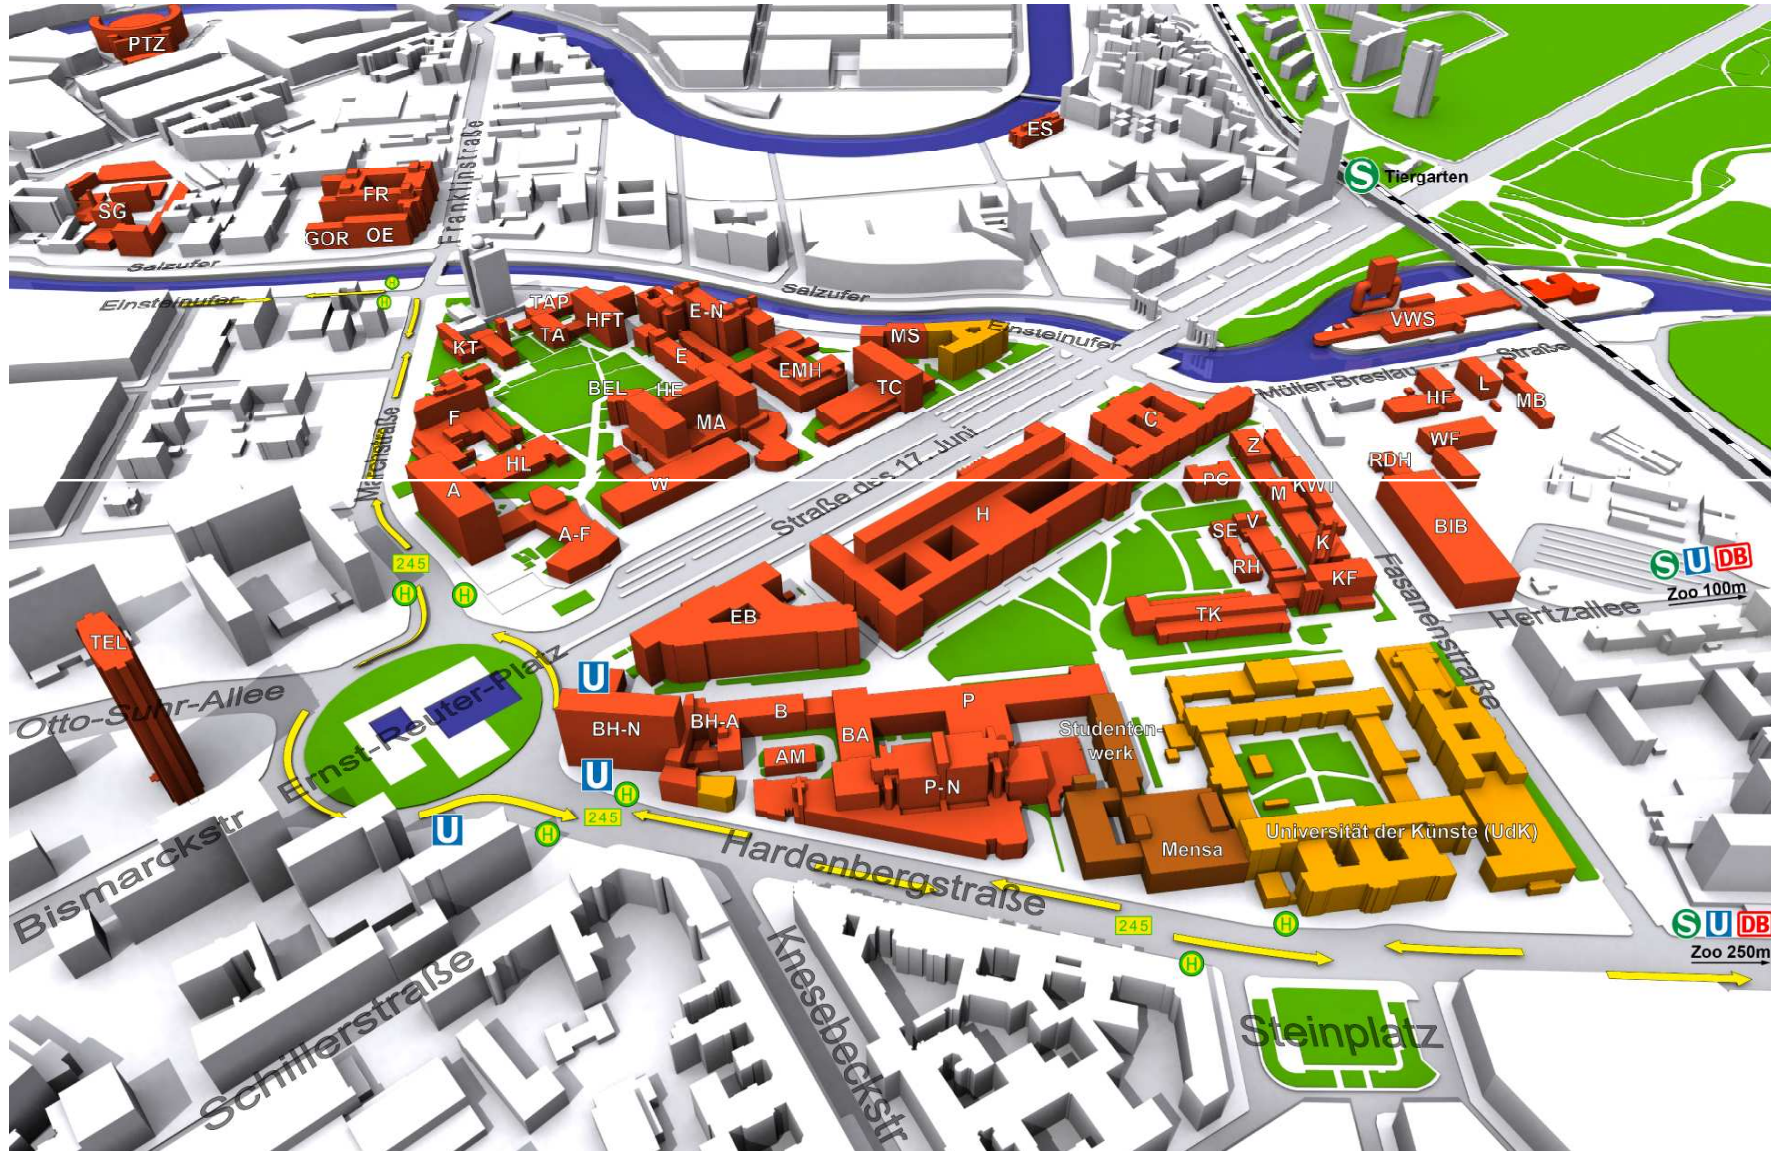

The President
Foreign Relations

Campus Map

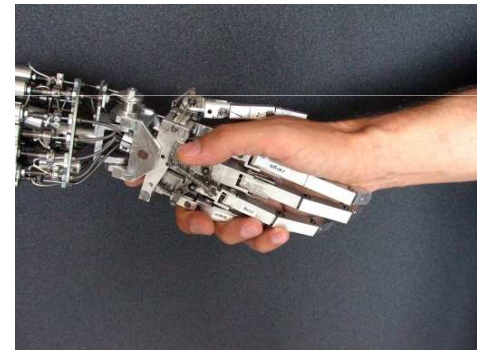

The President
Foreign Relations

Technische Universität Berlin, a university with international reputation in Germany's capital and in the heart of Europe

- Third largest University of Technology in Germany
- Research and teaching ranging from engineering and natural sciences to humanities and social sciences
- Intensive cooperation between science and industry
- Joint research projects with numerous non-university research institutes
- Alliance between technology and humanities to meet the challenges of the future

Schools and Selected Areas of Expertise

Schools

The President
Foreign Relations

| | Name | Departments |
|-----|--|--------------------|
| I | Humanities | 7 |
| II | Mathematics and Natural Sciences | 6 |
| III | Process Sciences | 6 |
| IV | Electrical Engineering and Computer Science | 6 |
| V | Mechanical Engineering and Transport Systems | 7 |
| VI | Planning - Building - Environment | 8 |
| VII | Economics and Management | 3 |

Facts & Figures (SS 2011)

The President
Foreign Relations

Students

30.635

- female
- foreign

9.871 (~32%)

5.919 (~20%)

Doctorates

470

Post doctoral lecture qualification

17

Study Courses

approx. 100

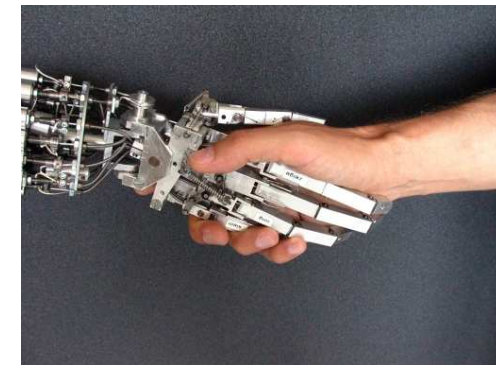

Double Degrees

27

(with universities in Brazil, Chile, China, France, Korea, Poland, Russia, UK)

English speaking courses:

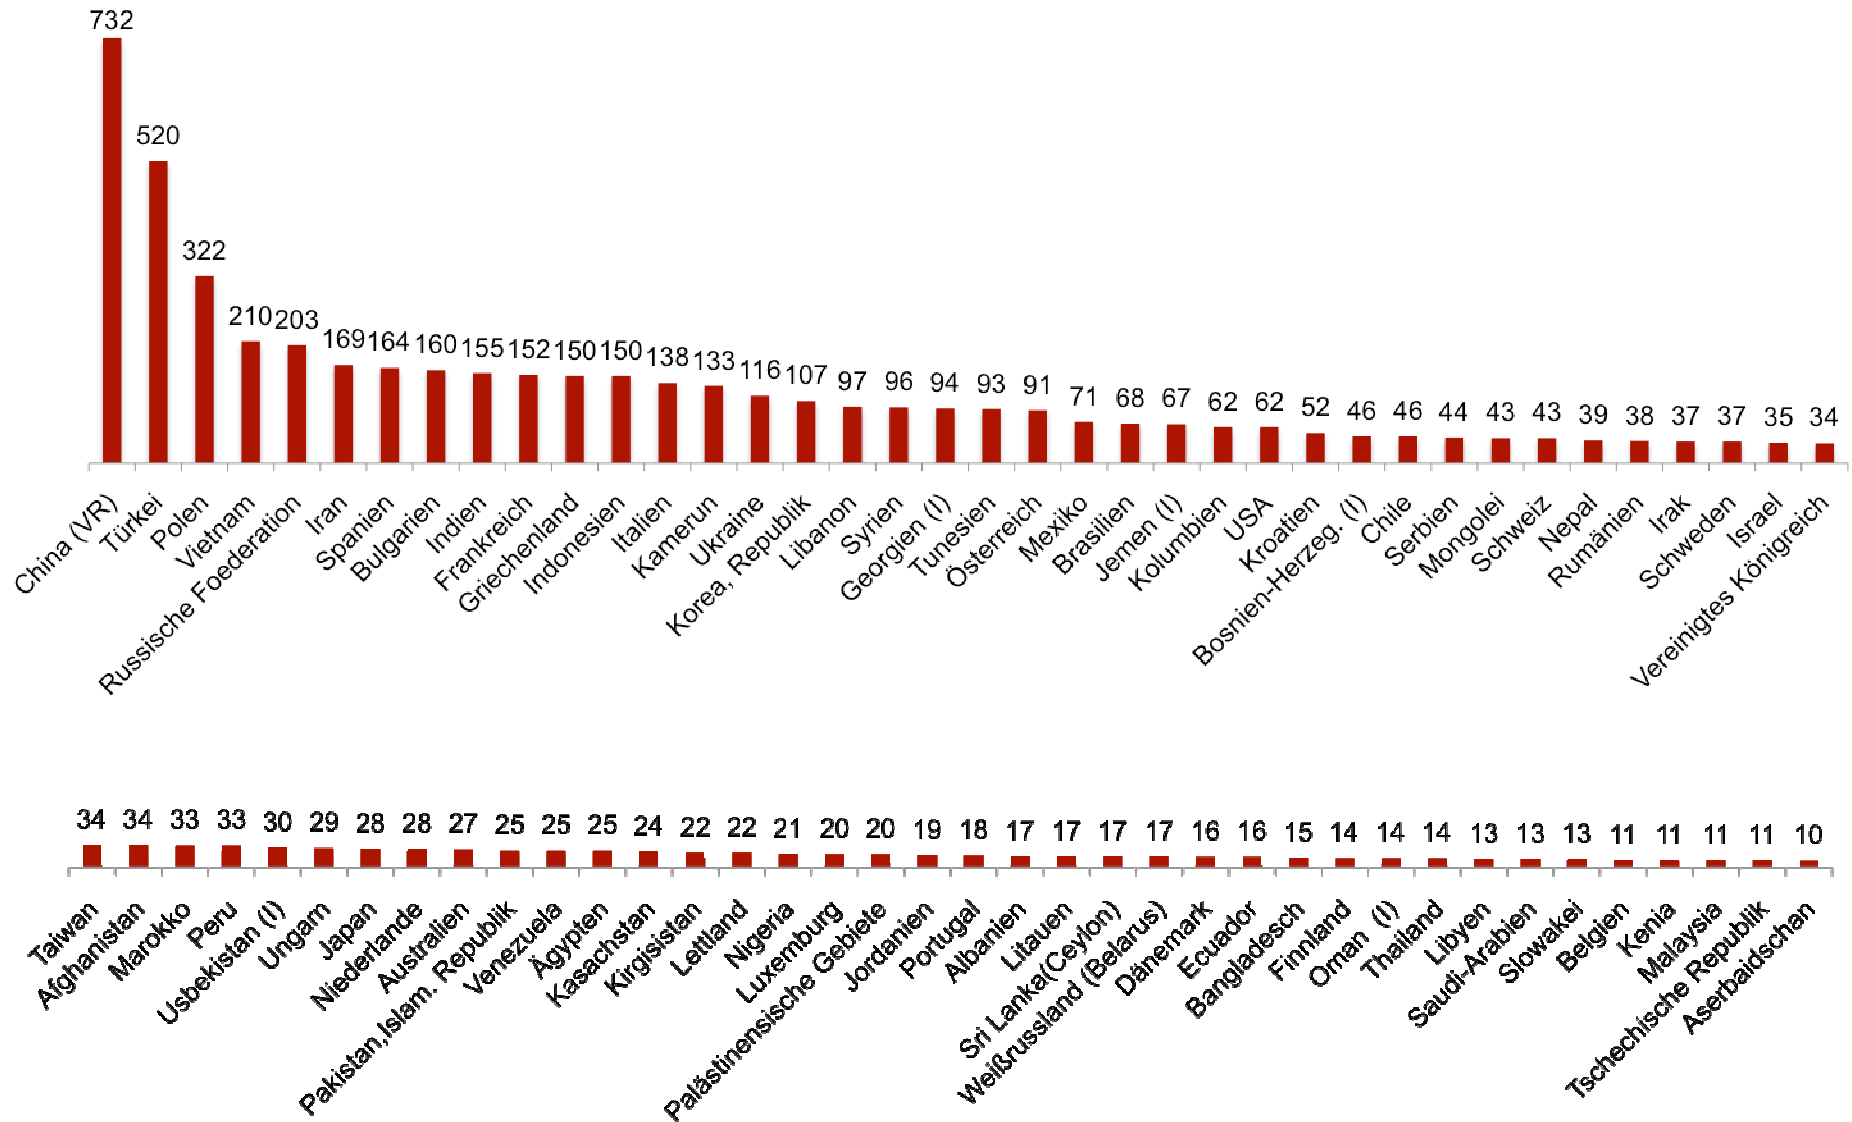

- Global Production Engineering
- Polymer Science
- Urban Management
- Urban Design
- Geodesy and Geoinformation Science
- Computational Neuroscience
- Industrial and Network Economics
- Process Energy and Environmental Systems Engineering
- Scientific Computing

International Students by Country of Origin

The President
Foreign Relations

Internationalization

Facts and Figures on Internationalization

The President
Foreign Relations

Cooperation programs with foreign universities >130

Student exchange programs with foreign universities >330

International students 5671

Alexander-von-Humboldt-Scholarship holders p.a. 52

International Cooperations and Exchange Programs

The President
Foreign Relations

Cities with partner universities

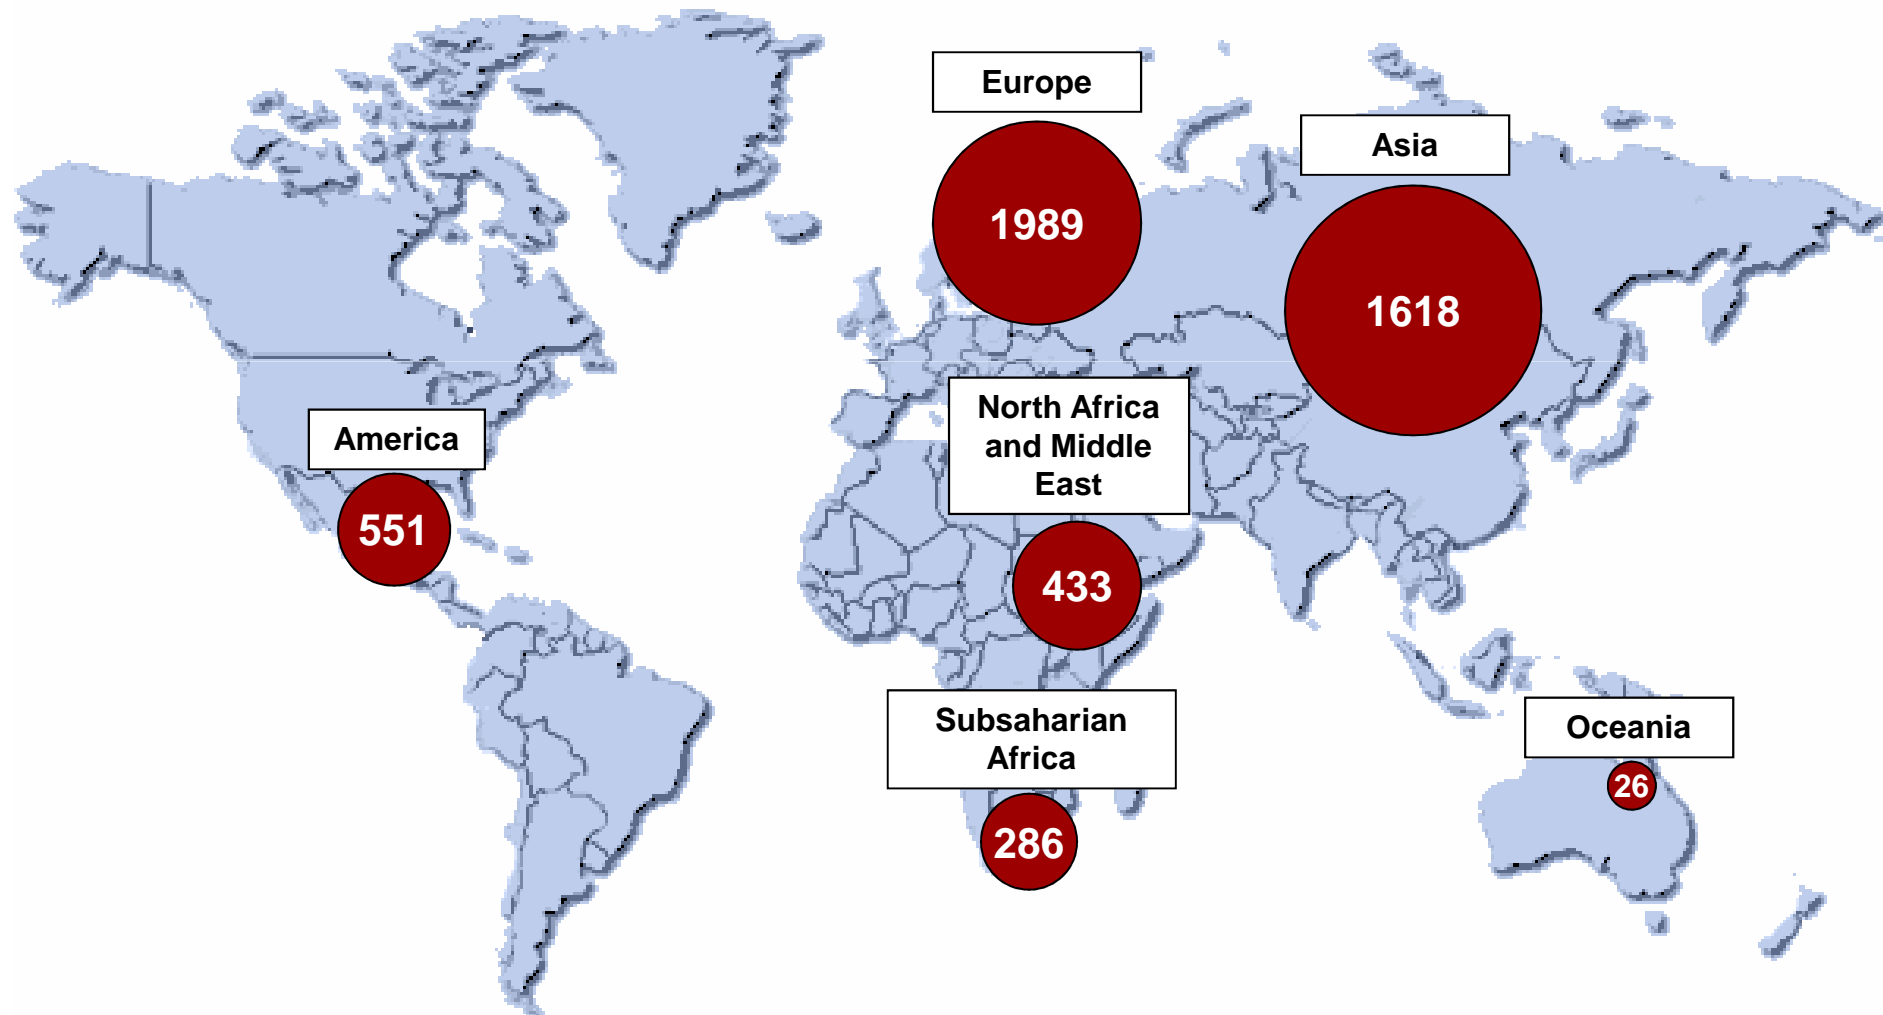

International Alumni Network

The President
Foreign Relations

Worldwide 4.903 contacts in 133 countries

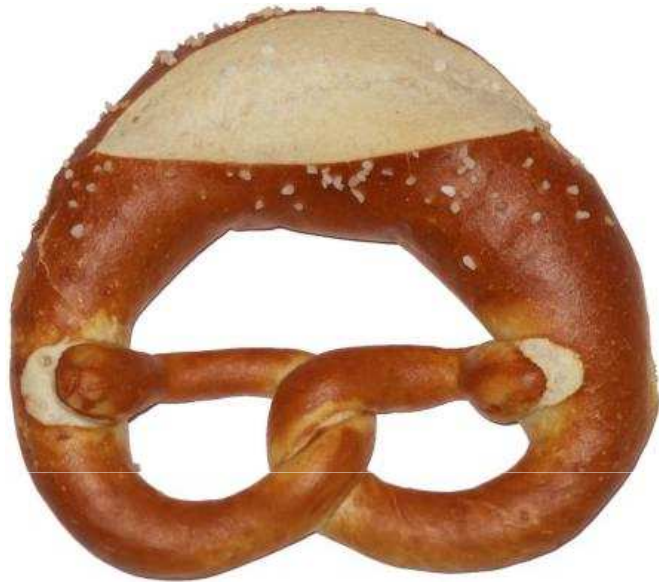

Lifestyle in Berlin

Food and Beverage

The President
Foreign Relations

Sightseeing

The President
Foreign Relations

Freetime Activities

The President
Foreign Relations

