

Course Name

History of Russia

Level of study	Bachelor Degree/ Master Degree
Workload	ECTS: 3 Total Hours:36 Contact Hours: 32 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lectures: 32 • Labs: • Seminars:
Course Code
Semester	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Winter/Summer
Prerequisites	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No
Course Objectives	The course is designed to present history of Russia in concepts and events and to show Russian approach in history studying.
Learning Outcomes	You will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • identify theoretical backgrounds of historical approaches in Russia; • examine trends of the Russian historical process • use principal historical terms concerning history of Russia; • apply key concepts and methods of historical science in the analysis of processes, phenomena and events of the past and current Russian social problems
Syllabus	Traditional Russian society in context of ancient and medieval history: East Slavs origin problem; Russian state system establishment; “Norman” and “Slavonic” concepts; Social and political system of Old Russian state, Kiev Rus and Mongol – Tatars’ invasion. Muscovy and Russian centralized state XVIII century in Russian history: Concept of Modernization, Cultural and Political changes, Catherine the Great. Russia in 19 century. . Aggravation of modernization in the middle of XIX century. Social and economical situation in Russia in the late XIX - XX centuries The revolutionary events of 1905-1917. First steps of Soviet government
Assessment	Exam