

Tasks for practical training.

1. Prepare a brief report about the metallurgical industry in your country. You can tell the history of this industry development (if you know). What enterprises of ferrous and non-ferrous metallurgy operate in your country, what products are produced? How are environmental issues resolved? If metallurgical products are not produced, then for what reasons, where do enterprises buy the necessary metal?