

The course "Russian as a foreign language. Writing" is designed for foreign students who wish to receive training and acquire the skills of writing in Russian. During the training, the student masters the genre written retelling, learning to write informal and formal letters and other types of documents needed in daily communications. The course allows you to prepare for the certification exam (TRKI-1, TRKI-2).