

Wednesday, April 13th, 2011

Today we had three excursions. The first place of our destination was S. Marco Museum. It is a former monastery.

The second excursion took place in the Academia Gallery, where a lot of paintings and sculptures, which are the real heritage of Florence, are situated.

The third place of our destination was the faculty of philology and philosophy in the Florentine university (Universita degli Studi di Firenze).

The rest of the day mixed groups were discussing the personalities and concept of the dictionary.

Pic.1. The mural of Lord's Supper, San Marco Museum, Florence.

Pic.2. San Marco Museum, Florence.

Pic.3. Michelangelo. David, 1501-1504, Academia Gallery, Florence.