

Useful vocabulary to write an annotation/review

to analyze to set out the problem to state, set forth; to give an account (of) (сообщать); to expound (подробно) to pay attention to smth to present, to offer to generalize, to summarize; to synthesize to cover the field broadly to point to to note to underline, to stress, to emphasize, to lay stress/emphasis (on); to devote (to); to dedicate (to); to view; to consider; to take up to draw a conclusion to be of great importance to play a large role to reveal	to intend (for) to supplement (with) to complete, to investigate; to explore to give an example, to cite an instance to mention briefly, to make a brief mention (of) statistical abstract to outline to illustrate brief review/overview (чем-л.) to conclude, to crown (with) to establish essence, core, main point, gist to come to the point complicated problem, challenge to bring up issue, to raise an issue/ to face an issue drawing on smb.'s experience essence, substance; main point relevant issues/ issues of current importance pressing/topical/urgent question This problem is important today because topicality /urgency (злободневность)
--	---