

Course / Module	GLACIP Module 2
Location	DBHW Mosbach – Campus Bad Mergentheim
Department / Program	GLACIP
ECTS Credits
Workload	64 lecture hours
Time of Exam(s)	at the end of the module
Kind and duration of Exam(s) / Assignment(s)	The written exam lasts 135 minutes.
Grading	The written exam counts 100 %. The examination is passed, if 50% of the score are achieved (4.0).
Learning Methods	German is the only language spoken during the lesson. Vocabulary and language structures are conveyed by means of daily topics and deepened with a variety of exercises. Students are encouraged and asked to apply in everyday life what they have learned. This is prepared with the help of role plays. Moreover, games concerning vocabulary, grammar and syntax serve to deepen what they have learned. A big emphasis is put on the correct pronunciation, which is deepened with phonetic exercises and games. The students prepare presentations about self-chosen topics and present them in a plenum. Short tests serve to check the learning progress. A regular and active attendance at the language course is expected. Homework and the self-dependent repetition of the learning matter are required.
Prerequisite(s)	Attendance at the course GLACIP module 1
Successive Course	Module 3
Learning Objectives	The students are able to formulate thoughts, simple and complex sentences and questions. They are able to answer questions referring to the past. They write short texts in the past (use of the perfect). They report on everyday situations like weather, shopping at the weekly market etc., the visit of a café/ restaurant or the short trips at the weekends. They talk about holiday experiences and future travel destinations (use of the future I). They are able to describe their flat/ residential area/ environment and to read flat advertisements as well as to conduct a conversation with the landlord, for example concerning housing problems. Moreover, they learn how to book a doctor's treatment or how to cancel it. They can understand simple news in the media and shortly present them.
Readings	Textbook A1 + (part 2)
Summary of Content	A high motivation for learning a foreign language is expected by the course participants. Cultural aspects like the geography of the country and the speaking of different dialects complement what has been learned in module 1. Moreover, the German culture and mentality, and particularly the region-specific eating culture in Germany represent, besides teaching language structures and vocabulary, a central issue. The students acquire an additional language qualification at level A1 of the European Reference Framework. It represents an important additional qualification for a subsequent professional activity in cooperation with or in German companies.
