

Student life at Princeton University

TIGER

UNIVERSE

About

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY

History

Princeton University was founded at Elizabeth, New Jersey, in 1746 as the College of New Jersey.

As part of the local celebrations in 1896, the College of New Jersey changed its name to Princeton University, the present name of the university

Princeton students and faculty staffs shares the tradition of educational excellence begun more than 250 years ago.

The Princeton Footnotes

is a traditional all-male a cappella group from Princeton University in Princeton. The Footnotes is a student-run, semi-professional performing group. They are a part of Princeton University's "arch-rotation" a cappella organization, which includes the Nassoons, Tigertones, Katzenjammers, Roaring Twenty, Tigerlillies, Wildcats, and Tigressions.

Promotional picture from the Tigertones website

The Princeton University Band
Tiger Band, P.U.B.

The Nassoons rehearse in their room on-campus

A photograph of Clio Hall at Princeton University, a neoclassical building with a prominent portico supported by tall columns. The building is surrounded by lush green trees and a well-maintained lawn. The text is overlaid on the image.

The American Whig- Cliosophic Society (short form: Whig-Clio)

is a political, literary, and debating society at Princeton University and the oldest debate union in the United States

Clio Hall

The Princeton Triangle Club

is a theater troupe at Princeton University

The troupe presents several shows throughout the year

In keeping with the practice of British and American all-male institutions at the time, women's roles were played by men.

WPRB

is a commercial radio station

Its broadcast consists mostly of independent rock, classical, news, jazz, and world music; WPRB also provides coverage of many of Princeton University's varsity sporting events and is in the process of restarting its news department.

Sport life

In free time the students are engaged in different kinds of sports on the basis of university and participate in various competitions

Princeton University Stadium

An aerial photograph of Princeton University Stadium. A large marching band in dark uniforms is arranged in a formation on the field, with a large boat positioned behind them. Several other groups of people are visible on the field and along the sidelines. The stadium's seating bowl is visible in the background.

It is primarily used for American football, and is the home field of the Princeton Tigers. The stadium opened in 1998 on the site of Princeton's former stadium, Palmer Stadium, and seats almost of 28 thousand.

Princeton University
DOORWAYS

Princeton...in the Nation's Service, and in the Service of All Nations.

Thanks for your attention!

Medvedev Alexander
Ovchinnikova Elena